

2007-2008 SCHOOL PROFILE

BACKGROUND

Founded in 1978 by a small group of parents, representing a handful of Christian churches in the Walnut Creek area, Contra Costa Christian Schools (CCCS) has grown to become one of the premier Christian schools in Northern California. Serving students from preschool through high school, the campus draws students from a broad geographical area, bringing a diverse student population to the Walnut Creek campus. Over 75 churches of more than 15 denominations are represented in our student body, including Christian Reformed, Presbyterian, Catholic, Evangelical, and Assemblies churches.

FACILITIES

Contra Costa Christian Schools is situated on 8 acres directly across from Larkey Park in Walnut Creek. In addition to 26 classrooms, we have a networked computer lab and computers in every classroom. Internet access is available at each computer. Our library has 15,000 volumes, 35 periodical titles, SIRS online educational database, and internet access for research. The multi-purpose room provides space for assemblies and general meetings; it also houses our student café.
