

ANNOUNCEMENTS

March 10, 2010

“In his heart a man plans his course, but the LORD determines his steps.”
“Proverbs 16:9”

MIDDLE SCHOOL

8th graders! Last chance! Tryout for the Varsity Cheer team! Pick your cheer packet up from in front of Mrs. Hecker’s office or the front office. Mandatory tryout clinic is tonight and tomorrow from 6-8 PM. Tryouts are Saturday. Don’t miss out on the fun! Summer camp at UC Santa Cruz, parades, competition and more!

Makala Harris, please see Mrs. Greenland in the office.

Grace Fishel, please see Mrs. Lobo in the office.

Found: silver cross necklace. See Mrs. Park in the office to identify and claim.

The will be no practice today for either MS girls volleyball or soccer teams. Practice will resume tomorrow.

HIGH SCHOOL

Tacky Prom Night is Friday, March 12 at Hillside Covenant Church. It is the last all-school dance of the year. Buy your pre-sale tickets from a student council member for only $5. If you come to the door in your Tacky Prom outfit, you only pay $5. If you want to bring your friends from other schools fill out a guest request form located above the copier outside of Mr. Padmos' office and turn it in to Mr. Huizenga before Thursday, March 11.

Chili Cook Off today, Rap Battle tomorrow.

The school dress code still applies during Hee Haw Week. Today dress western and bring your soda or Chili. Tomorrow the dress up theme is Make Believe. On Friday the theme is Tacky Prom. Have fun with this theme: fluorescent dresses, tuxedo t-shirts, 80's hair, mullets, 70's leisure suits, make it TACKY.

Congratulations to our Sr. High Choir for their outstanding performance at the ACSI Senior High Musicale at Capital Christian Center in Sacramento, CA. These students rehearsed with over 400 students from other Christian schools in the Bay Area on Thursday and Friday, March 4th and 5th. They presented a sacred choral Concert on Friday evening under the direction of Dr. Daniel Jackson, Professor of Music at Point Loma Nazarene University. In addition to the excellent choir adjudications, a special congratulations to Alan Kim, soloist; and Meredith Allendorph and Shaneice Harris, who sang a lovely duet. What a wonderful opportunity to create and give beauty to the world through the art of choral music.

Congratulations to Rachel Assink, Flute, Sarah Osterman, Clarinet, and Hye Jin Lim, Violin for their outstanding performance at the ACSI Honor Symphony at Patten University in Oakland, CA. These students rehearsed all day Friday, March 5th and presented an evening Concert under the direction of Marlin Owen, Associate Professor of Orchestras at Biola University. Special congratulations and recognition to Hye Jin Lim who earned the Concertmaster position and Sarah Osterman who earned First Chair position!!!

Last chance! Tryout for the Varsity Cheer team! Pick your cheer packet up from in front of Mrs. Hecker's office or the front office. Mandatory tryout clinic is tonight and tomorrow from 6-8 PM. Tryouts are Saturday. Don't miss out on the fun! Summer camp at UC Santa Cruz, parades, competition and more!

Found: silver cross necklace. See Mrs. Park in the office to identify and claim.

Debate team topics for today: 1. Legalize cannibalism, 2. Legalize cannabis, 3. Legalize prostitution. Parliamentary debate starts at 11:25 sharp.

Volleyball team meeting at lunch tomorrow from 11:30 to 11:40

Boys Volleyball desperately needs two students to help out with score keeping, libero tracking and lines tomorrow at Tice vs. OMI. (Service hours can be earned for both these jobs!) Please see Mr. Manatt for unethical extra credit opportunities.

Meredith Allendorph and Monica Hoehn, please see Mrs. Lobo in the office.

Picture Day for spring sports - girl's soccer at 3:30, swim team at Larkey at 4:15, and boy's volleyball at 4:45 at Tice.

The girl's soccer team dropped a hard fought decision to San Marin yesterday by the score of 3-0. After a scoreless first half, San Marin was able to find the net three times in the second half and come away with the win. The girl's soccer team is back in action Thursday at home vs Emery.

The swim team competed yesterday at the Larkey Pool vs Bentley. Even on a cold and windy day, the Cougar swimmers competed well. No results to report at this time. The swim team will have another home meet next Wednesday vs College Prep and OMI.