Explorer Reports

These are now complete and I will be showing them how to antique them next week. Be sure to look for them on display at our

OPEN HOUSE
February 4th.

Children's Stories

Stories are in the final stages. They have completed their rough draft and have started to assemble and illustrate them using only torn construction paper.

Best Christmas Pageant Ever

Well this story has taken a few twists and turns and it looks like the pageant might be a total disaster with the Herdman children in the lead roles, or it might be canceled altogether. We will finally find out what happens next week.
