CCCS Library Presents Author Susan Gal
Monday, December 7th, 12:15 in the MPR

Susan Gal tells the story of a child's evening routine through all the different kinds of lights that shine in the night. From the porch light by the front door, to the firelight (and firefly light!) of a backyard cookout, and the candles on a cake, everything seems to glow in this warm and cozy book. When the lightning of a sudden summer storm sends the action inside, there is light there too—a bedside light to read by, a flashlight to make shadows with, a night-light to keep you company, and the moonlight for sweet dreams.

Author Bio: Susan Gal began her illustration career as a poster and calendar artist. She then worked as an "actor with a pencil" for Disney Animation before returning to her native California to create fun and whimsical illustrations. This is her first picture book.

Pre-Order this special book for only $12.00! All pre ordered books will be signed by the author. Makes a wonderful Christmas Gift!
